
Statement attributable to the Spokesperson for the Secretary-General concerning the Secretary-General's telephone calls with the Prime Ministers of Turkey and Israel

The Secretary-General spoke by telephone today with Prime Minister Erdogan of Turkey and Prime Minister Netanyahu of Israel to discuss options for moving forward with the investigation called for by the Security Council Presidential Statement of 1 June 2010. The Secretary-General will continue to consult concerned parties and Council members.