SUMMARY RECORD OF THE TWO HUNDRED AND THIRTY-THIRD MEETING held at the Hotel de Crillon, Paris, on Monday, 10 September 1951, at 12 noon.

Arrangements for the opening of the conference (continued)

The CHAIRMAN reminded the members of the Commission that they were to call upon the representative of Egypt on that day. As they did not know when the replies of the other governments would reach them, it would perhaps be best, in order to save time, also to arrange personal contacts with the Israel representative in the evening of Monday, 10 September, and later with the representatives of Lebanon, Syria and Jordan,

Further, he announced that the French representative had submitted a new draft of the comprehensive proposals, which should be carefully considered. He therefore proposed that the meeting should be adjourned so that the members might study the new text.

It was so decided.

The meeting rose at 12:15 p.m.
