3. The Conference was opened by His Excellency Turgut Ozal, President of the Republic of Turkey, who, in his inaugural address, welcomed the participating delegations.

Noting the pleasure of the Turkish Government in relation to hosting the Conference of Foreign Ministers in Istanbul for a second time in the last two decades, he paid tribute to the remarkable progress achieved by the OIC in bringing the Islamic countries together and in promoting solidarity and cooperation among them.

His Excellency Turgut Ozal observed that the OIC had successfully adapted itself to the changing conditions on the international scene and underlined the importance of the multi-dimensional nature acquired by the activities of the OIC as it evolved and matured.

Drawing attention to the momentous challenges confronting the Islamic world at this particular junction of history, the President of Turkey recalled the tragic ordeal brought about by the recent Gulf crisis and its aftermath. Explaining Turkey's clear and principled stand throughout the crisis aimed at the restoration of legitimacy and the full reversal of the consequences of aggression, he stressed the necessity of laying down firm foundations capable of preventing the recurrence of similar incidents of lawlessness. In this respect, he also referred to the need of avoiding further divisions and harmful recriminations within the Islamic Ummah.

His Excellency Turgut Ozal, elaborating on the twin processes of political liberalization and economic transformation unfolding in Europe, commended the role of the CSCE (Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe) framework and structures in spawning these processes and expressed his belief in the possibility for the Islamic world to take steps in a similar direction. Reaffirming Turkey's readiness to share her experience gained within the CSCE system, President Ozal underscored the crucial role which the OIC could play in this regard with the aim of achieving just and durable peace through dialogue and cooperation.

The President of Turkey identified economic cooperation as the best and most effective method to achieve peace and stability, citing as example the evolution in Western Europe towards greater harmony through economic integration. In this context he highlighted the contribution made by the Standing Committee for Economic and Commercial Cooperation to increase and expand such relations among the Member States of the OIC. Also referring to the scheme in operation over the past four years whereby the Islamic Development Bank promotes the exports of the Member States and to the Framework Agreement for Preferential Trade among Islamic nations, he praised the support and collaboration afforded by the Member States without which these concrete achievements could not have been possible. Focusing on the development of economic cooperation in the Middle East, His Excellency Turgut Ozal emphasized the substantial complementarities among the economies in the region. To explore the potentials in one such field, President Ozal said, a "Middle East Water Summit" would be held in Istanbul in November 1991 and referred to his proposal for the construction of a "Peace Water Pipeline" that would benefit nine Member States of the OIC.

His Excellency the President of Turkey said that the Islamic world stood to gain from the era of democratization and liberal economic policies dawning in Central and Eastern Europe. This era, he said, promised more freedom for the Islamic communities in these countries, better prospects for the preservation of their religious identity and a congenial atmosphere for their practice of the Islamic faith. He pointed out that, the relaxation of tensions in the international context would enable scarce economic resources to be increasingly diverted from military to civilian use, thereby contributing to the welfare of all peoples. All sectors of business in the Member States of the OIC could avail themselves of the opportunities afforded by the process of privatization in the former communist countries. However, he said, better coordination of economic policies, enhanced cooperation and greater solidarity among Islamic countries were indispensable in order to assess and utilize these prospects and opportunities in a most efficient manner.

His Excellency President Turgut Ozal also elaborated on the revival of religion being witnessed as part of the process of change underway in Eastern Europe and in the Soviet Union. As confirmed by history, he said, people believing in God build stronger societies. He underlined the importance for the world community of remaining vigilant against dangers that could result from a rekindling, between Muslims and Christians, of ancient conflicts. In this context, he drew attention to the fact that thirst for power could lead some people to exploit even the smallest differences among nations and factions to achieve their objectives. To prevent such a dangerous course, the President of Turkey told the Conference, societies and individuals need to be more tolerant towards each other and emphasized that this had been the message he repeatedly conveyed to the Christian countries in the West in almost all his statements.

The President of Turkey gave a concise description of his country's transformation into a prosperous market economy and underscored Turkey's will for increased cooperation with neighbouring and other Member States of the OIC. He thanked the OIC Secretary General for the latter's admirable performance and contributions in the service of the Organization. Looking forward to the Sixth Islamic Summit- to be held in Senegal, he expressed confidence that combined efforts embracing the ensemble of the Member States would ensure its success.

His Excellency Turgut Ozal concluded his address by wishing success to the 20th Meeting of the Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers and, expressing the hope for it to become a significant new milestone in the history of the OIC. He reaffirmed that the Islamic March was indeed

4. On the proposal of His Excellency Amr Moussa, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Arab Republic of Egypt and the Chairman of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers, the Conference decided to adopt the inaugural address of His Excellency President Turgut OZAL as an official document of the Conference.

5. Their Excellencies the Foreign Ministers of the Republic of Senegal, the State of Kuwait and the Islamic Republic of Iran, on behalf of the African, Arab and Asian Member States respectively expressed their profound gratitude and sincere thanks to His Excellency President Turgut OZAL for patronizing the Conference by his presence and the highly inspiring guidelines contained in his inaugural address. Their Excellencies the Foreign Ministers also thanked the Government of the Republic of Turkey for the excellent arrangements it had made for the Conference and for the generous hospitality extended by it to all delegations.

6. His Excellency Mr. Amr Moussa, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Arab Republic of Egypt and Chairman of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers delivered a statement at the opening session, which he considered to be a report by the Chairmanship of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers. He expressed the thanks of the Member States to Turkey for the constructive efforts it has exerted, under the leadership of President Turgut Ozal, to host the present Conference and for the excellent preparations made in this respect. He also expressed sincere appreciation for the comprehensive inaugural speech delivered by the Turkish President.

His Excellency Amr Moussa referred to the many transformations taking place in the world and requested the Organization of the Islamic Conference to keep abreast of these transformations. He expressed his regret at the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait which came as a surprise to the Islamic States during the convening of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference and which threatened the foundations of security, stability and solidarity. He highlighted the firm stands taken by the Organization of the Islamic Conference to confront this crisis by condemning the Iraqi invasion and demanding the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of Iraqi forces from Kuwait and the return of its legitimate government. He recalled the efforts exerted by President Mohammed Hosni Mubarak, in his capacity as President of the State assuming the Chairmanship of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference, to contain the crisis and seek the restoration of Islamic and international legitimacy; these efforts were pursued until the liberation of Kuwait was achieved.

The Chairman of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers emphasized the necessity of stepping up efforts to reactivate the peace process in the Middle East following the liberation of Kuwait. This is to be done by utilizing the momentum generated by the application of the principles of international legitimacy on the Gulf crisis; by supporting the principle of exchanging land for peace, rights and security, in affirmation of the provisions of international and Islamic legitimacy contained in Resolutions 242 and 338 of the UN Security Council, and in the resolutions of the OIC, concerning the recovery of the legitimate rights of the Palestinian people; and by rejecting duplicitous positions and double standards. He considered the settlement policy followed by Israel in the occupied Palestine and Arab territories, including Al-Quds Al-Sharif, as an obstacle to peace. He condemned the Israeli practices directed against the citizens of the occupied territories, which are in violation of the Fourth Geneva Convention.

His Excellency Amr Moussa stated the readiness of the Arab parties to take part in the peace conference with the participation of the representatives of the Palestinian people and in the presence of the United Nations and the European Community. He demanded that Israel should not attach conditions to its participation in the conference so that a just and lasting peace may be established. He asked for the removal of the causes of fear and lack of trust and called for the establishment of security for all states and peoples without exception. He emphasized that the removal of all the weapons of mass destruction is one of the most important foundations of security, because security is indivisible. He stressed the necessity of refusing any arrangement which may give any privilege to any party to the detriment of the other, through systems of control and verification applicable to all. He asked for ensuring security for all states and peoples involving the minimum of armament so as to allow the mobilization of the resources of the Islamic Ummah for development within the context of the peaceful settlement of all regional conflicts, in an environment of security, peace and stability.

He welcomed the adoption of the "Cairo Declaration on Human Rights in Islam" by the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers, which is considered an important achievement by which the Islamic States should be guided when making the domestic legislations.

He also referred to the role of Al Azhar Al Sharif in enriching cultural, educational and fiqh cooperation among Islamic States. He called for coordinating researches on Seerah and Sunnah in the Islamic world in conjunction with the Organization of the Islamic Conference.

His Excellency Amr Moussa stated the position of the Organization on the various issues included in the agenda in implementation of the resolutions of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers.

7. In his address at the inaugural session of the Ministerial Conference, the OIC Secretary General, His Excellency Dr. Hamid Algabid, expressed his delight at being in the city of Istanbul, which hosted, back in 1976, the Seventh Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers; Istanbul, that prestigious, bustling and dynamic city, whose past and present attest to the impressive and rich history of Turkey and to its considerable contribution to the harmonious development of Islam and Islamic civilization.

The Secretary General was keen to express, once again, to Turkey, its people and its Government, his fraternal esteem, distinct appreciation and deep gratitude for their constant support to the Organization of the Islamic Conference and their unfailing commitment to joint Islamic action.

His Excellency Dr. Hamid Algabid added that this tribute was addressed, naturally and above all, to the Head of State of this great country, His Excellency Mr. Turgut Ozal, President of the Republic of Turkey, whose highly inspiring message had the distinct merit of addressing our concerns, hopes and legitimate aspirations.

Upon commending the action of President Turgut Ozal at the head of IFSTAD Scientific Council and of COMCEC, the OIC Secretary General highlighted his role as a deserving pioneer and active militant in favour of joint Islamic action and as well as his prominent contribution to the activities of the OIC, its subsidiary organs and its specialized and affiliated institutions.

His Excellency Dr. Hamid Algabid then dealt with the invasion and occupation of the State of Kuwait by Iraqi troops at the very time in which the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers was being held in Cairo. He stressed the stubbornness of Iraq and its refusal to comply with any of the appeals addressed to it or any of the initiatives and measures aimed at ensuring its withdrawal from Kuwait.

This stubbornness led the OIC Member States and the international community to denounce and condemn Iraq's move as a blatant aggression against the independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity of the State of Kuwait, in violation of all Charters and international Conventions.

Concluding, the Secretary General declared that "now we must undertake to face the untold human sufferings which have beset the peoples of this region, rebuild that which has been destroyed and dress the deep wounds caused by this crisis. To do this we must seek to ensure the correct and integral implementation of the numerous UN Security Council resolutions which are designed to bring peace to the Gulf region.

Dealing with the Palestinian question and the situation in the Middle East, His Excellency Dr. Hamid Algabid recalled the collective and solemn oath to devote our efforts and means to the liberation of Al-Quds Al-Sharif and all the Palestinian and Arab territories occupied by the Zionist enemy, and to assist the martyred people of Palestine struggling for decades to recover their usurped rights and to set up on the land of their forefathers, their independent State with Al-Quds Al-Sharif as its capital under the leadership of the Palestine Liberation Organization, their sole legitimate representative.

Having hailed the valiant Palestinian people's blessed Intifadah, the Secretary General recalled the various peace initiatives, since King Fahd's peace plan, endorsed in 1986 by the Arab Summit of Fez, the Palestinian peace proposals, the Arab initiatives for a settlement on the basis of international legality, concerning the Palestine Question and the Arab-Israeli Conflict.

He paid a resounding tribute to Egypt, Syria, Jordan, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the PLO for their firm, courageous and highly positive stand in favour of the peace process on the basis of UN Security Council resolutions 242 and 338. Such an attitude is markedly different from that shown by the Israeli government. The latter seems to fear as always peace and has chosen to multiply the impediments on the road to peace. That government is rejecting the option of land for peace, pursuing its policy of implanting settlements in the occupied territories and Al-Quds Al-Sharif and is attempting to dictate to the Palestinian people the composition of the delegation representing them in the peace negotiations.

The OIC, went on the Secretary General, is called to increase, in these particularly crucial times, its support to the struggle of the Palestinian people and their blessed Intifadah and maintain strong pressure on Israel on an international scale. The world is ever more becoming conscious of the real intentions and dark designs of that country.

Speaking about the situation in Lebanon, His Excellency Dr. Hamid Algabid warmly congratulated President Elias Hrawi, President of the Republic of Lebanon, and the Government of Lebanon for the success achieved in the matter of national reconciliation, and of consolidation of the State and of Lebanese sovereignty on the whole of the national territory.

Concerning the situation in Afghanistan, the Secretary General urged Member States to increase diplomatic pressure to help remove the last obstacles to the ongoing process of political settlement, and invite the Afghan Mujahideen to close ranks and adopt unified positions at this crucial stage.

Concerning the Jammu and Kashmir dispute, on the other hand, the Secretary General recalled the resolution adopted on this question by the 19th Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers and expressed his belief that the dispute can be settled by political means in the spirit of the relevant resolutions of the UN Security Council.

With respect to Somalia, the Secretary General

last sessions of the National Reconciliation Conference, marked essentially by agreeing on cease-fire and by collective commitment to work for reconciliation, national unity and reconstruction. His Excellency Dr. Hamid Algabid commended the initiatives of the President of the Republic of Djibouti, His Excellency Hassan Gouled Aptidon, in furtherance of the peace process.

Concerning the Cyprus question, the Secretary General recalled that the Muslim Turkish people of Cyprus have always been the object of active sympathy at the OIC where the Muslim Turkish community has had observer status for many years.

He called on Member States to take action and coordinate their efforts along the lines of the recent proposals of the UN Secretary General calling for quadripartite negotiations to solve the Cyprus question.

Evoking the situation of the Muslims in Southern Philippines which still remains a matter of concern for Member States, the Secretary General affirmed that the time has come to find a solution to this question which has been on the agenda of our successive Conferences for fifteen years, in keeping with the legitimate aspirations of the Bangsamoro people and in accordance with the spirit and the letter of the Tripoli Agreement.

Dealing with the situation in Africa, the Secretary General pointed out the major challenges that threatened the modest gains painfully achieved throughout thirty long years of considerable sacrifice; namely in the Sahel region where the Muslim populations waged a daily war against poverty, disease, illiteracy and natural disasters. He invited the Member States of the OIC to be the promoters and initiators of new action founded on the principles of Islamic solidarity, in order to help African countries master current difficulties and their national objectives in terms of economic development and social progress; solutions which necessarily address the problem of indebtedness and increased assistance for purposes of development.

The Secretary General concluded his address by recalling the profound upheaval occurring on the international scene and asserted that "the new Islamic order must enable us to draw from our present sufferings and current difficulties the reasons underlying our hopes and determination to conceive and edify together our future in order to avoid the obvious risk of marginalisation besetting our nations."

8. The Conference thereafter unanimously elected His Excellency Safa Giray, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Turkey as the Chairman of the Twentieth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers.

9. After assuming the Chairmanship, His Excellency Safa Giray Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Turkey delivered a statement in which he called upon his colleagues the Foreign Ministers of Islamic countries to combine their efforts for the success of the Conference and delivered a vote of thanks to His Excellency Dr. Ahmed Essmet Abdul Meguid, former Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Arab Republic of Egypt, and H.E. Amr Moussa, Current Foreign Minister, for their unique contributions to the work of the OIC during their tenure as Chairman of the Ministerial Conference.

Noting that the meeting was held at a critical juncture of international relations as the first one of its kind since the unfortunate events in the Gulf area, he emphasized the need for a genuine display of resolute and coherent attitudes in facing the challenges that lie ahead. To facilitate the adoption of such attitudes, he suggested that the working procedures of the OIC could be improved by assigning subordinate bodies to elaborate on those issues not yet ripe enough to be tackled at the Ministerial level, thus sparing adequate time for the latter to discuss important political issues on which sufficient preparatory consultative efforts have been spent.

His Excellency Mr. Safa Giray also stressed the necessity to make utmost of this Conference in order to strengthen Islamic solidarity and attune the progress of the Islamic Ummah with the new direction towards multifold cooperation currently gaining momentum on the international scene, especially in the economic field.

10. The Conference elected Their Excellencies the Foreign Ministers of the Republic of Cameroun, the State of Kuwait and the State of Palestine as Vice Chairmen. His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Arab Republic of Egypt was elected as the Rapporteur-General.

11. Thereafter, the Conference approved the Report of the meeting of Senior Officials which was presented by His Excellency Ozdem Sanberk, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs and Head of Delegation of the Republic of Turkey.

The Conference decided to entitle this Session "Session of just and durable peace through dialogue and cooperation among Member States and respect for international legitimacy."

The Conference adopted the draft Agenda submitted by the meeting of Senior Officials.

12. The Conference noted with appreciation the Report of His Excellency Mr. Amr Moussa, Foreign Minister of the Arab Republic of Egypt and the Chairman of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers.

15. The Conference heard with fraternal sentiments the statement of His Excellency Dr. Kenan Atakol, who voiced the rightful cause of the Turkish Muslim people of Cyprus and their request for membership in the Organization of Islamic Conference.

16. The Conference also heard a statement made by His Excellency Mr. Nur Misuari, Chairman of the Moro National Liberation Front, regarding the problems of the Muslims of Southern Philippines.

17. The Conference listened also with fraternal sentiments to the message of the representatives of the Islamic communities in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Albania and Yugoslavia.

18. During the general debate, the Foreign Ministers and heads of delegations analysed the situation in the Islamic world and on the international scene after the Gulf crisis as well as in the light of the profound transformation in East-West relations and its implications for the security, stability and development of the Islamic World. They emphasized the need for intensifying collective efforts to realize the noble objectives of the Charter of the OIC.

19. The Conference noted with appreciation the Reports presented by the Secretary General on the activities carried out under the auspices of Al-Quds Committee, the Standing Committee on Information and Cultural Affairs (COMIAC), the Standing Committee on Economic and Commercial Cooperation (COMCEC), and the Standing Committee on Scientific and Technological Cooperation (COMSTECH).

It expressed its warmest thanks and consideration to the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, King Fahd Ibn Abdul Aziz and the Government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on behalf of Muslim communities and Minorities in particular, on behalf of Muslims in general.

POLITICAL AFFAIRS:

23. The Conference affirmed its active solidarity and total support for the just struggle of the valiant Palestinian people. It saluted with great pride the heroic steadfastness and immense sacrifices of the Palestinian people, the continuation and escalation of their blessed Intifadha against the repressive practices of the Israeli forces of occupation, and their valiant resistance to its brutal and barbaric methods. It called on Member States to extend all forms of political and economic support to the Palestinian people.

The Conference strongly condemned the continuation of the policy of establishment of settlements and expansionism of the Israeli government, and its expulsion of Arab citizens in violation of fundamental human rights and all international treaties and covenants, considering that the establishment of settlements in the occupied territories constitute a major obstacle in the way of the international efforts being exerted to bring about a just and comprehensive peace in the region.

The Conference called on the international community to promptly provide urgent international protection to the Palestinian people under Israeli occupation, to force Israel as the occupying and aggressor State to implement all the articles of the Fourth Geneva Convention of 1949 relative to the protection of civilian persons in time of war.

The Conference also urged the U.N. Secretary General to call a meeting of the States signatories to the Fourth Geneva Convention to promptly take the necessary measures in order to force Israel to comply with the clauses of the said Convention in keeping with its international obligations.

The Conference expressed its deep concern at the persistent implementation of the scheme of transferring Soviet, Falasha, and other Jews to Israel and settling them extensively in the occupied Palestinian and Arab territories including Al-Quds Al-Sharif and occupied Syrian Golan, which will pave the way for world Zionism to carry out its colonialist design aimed at establishing the so-called "Greater Israel" which constitutes an immense danger to the historical rights of the Palestinian people and threatens the security of Arab and Islamic States. RESOLUTIONS ON THE POLITICAL, LEGAL AND INFORMATION AFFAIRS ADOPTED BY THE TWENTIETH ISLAMIC CONFERENCE OF FOREIGN MINISTERS (SESSION OF JUST AND DURABLE PEACE THROUGH DIALOGUE AND COOPERATION AMONG MEMBER STATES AND RESPECT FOR INTERNATIONAL LEGITIMACY), HELD AT ISTANBUL, TURKEY,

FROM 4 TO 8 AUGUST 1991 (24-28 MUHARRAM, 1412 H)

RESOLUTION NO.1/20-P
PALESTINE CAUSE AND THE ARAB-ISRAELI CONFLICT

The Twentieth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers (Session of Just and Durable Peace Through Dialogue And Cooperation Among Member States And Respect For International Legitimacy), held in Istanbul, Republic of Turkey, from 24-28 Muharram 1412H (4-8 August 1991),

Having considered the Report of the Secretary General on the Palestinian Cause and the Arab-Israeli Conflict contained in Document No.(ICFM/20-91/QP/D.1);

Proceeding from the principles and objectives of the Charter of the Organization of the Islamic Conference;

Pursuant to the resolutions of the Islamic Summit and Foreign Ministers Conferences on the Cause of Palestine and the Arab-Israeli Conflict;

Recalling also all the resolutions of the United Nations, the Non-Aligned Movement, the Organization of African Unity and the League of Arab States on the question of Palestine and the Arab-Israeli Conflict;

Reaffirming that the Palestine Cause is the core of the Arab-Israeli conflict, and that Israel's continued occupation of Palestinian and Arab territories, its annexation of Al-Quds Al-Sharif and the Syrian Golan and its denial of the inalienable national rights of the Palestinian people constitute a flagrant violation of international legitimacy and the principles of international law as well as the UN Charter and the relevant UN resolutions;

Noting with deep concern the critical situation in the occupied Palestinian territories, the Syrian Golan and the other occupied Arab territories resulting from continued Israeli occupation and Israel's persistence in its racist and expansionist practices and in escalating its acts of terrorism and repression against Arab citizens;

Affirming that the Geneva Convention of 1949 relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Times of War applies to the occupied Arab territories including Al-Quds Al-Sharif;

Affirming also that the danger of Zionist aggression and expansionism is aimed at not only the Arab frontline States, but also seeks to destabilize the Islamic countries thereby threatening international peace and security;

Reaffirming the legitimacy of the struggle of the Palestinian people under the leadership of the Palestine Liberation Organization, their sole legitimate representative, to regain their territories and exercise their inalienable national rights;

Following with interest the continuation of the Palestinian Intifadha in the occupied Palestinian territories for the fourth year, aimed at putting an end to Israeli occupation and restoring the inalienable national rights of the Palestinian people;

Reaffirming all Islamic Resolutions on the Islamic Bureau for Military Coordination with Palestine;

Noting with deep concern that collusion between Israel and the regime of South Africa, leads to the encouragement of the policy of terrorism and physical liquidation against Palestinians and Arabs in the occupied territories on the one hand, and the black majority in South Africa on the other;

1. Reaffirms all the resolutions of the Islamic Conferences relating to the Palestine cause and the Arab-Israeli Conflict; expresses pride in the blessed Intifadha of the Palestinian people, and calls upon all Member States to continue to enhance their solidarity and support to their just and legitimate struggle against Israeli occupation until they have fully attained their objectives of freedom and independence.

2. Reaffirms its support of the independent State of Palestine and the right of Palestinian people to exercise sovereignty over their territory in their State of Palestine with Al-Quds Al-Sharif as its capital.

3. Reaffirms also that the Palestine question is the primary cause of Muslims and constitutes the core of the Arab-Israeli Conflict and that a just and comprehensive peace in the region can only be established on the basis of total and unconditional withdrawal of Israel from all occupied Palestinian territories and the occupied Syrian Golan and other occupied Arab territories, and the exercise of the inalienable national rights of the Palestinian people including their right to return, to self-determination, and to the establishment of their Palestinian State on their national soil with Al-Quds Al-Sharif as its Capital.

4. Further reaffirms that the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO) is the sole and legitimate representative of the Palestinian people and that the PLO alone has the full right to represent them in all conference and activities relating to the Palestine question and the Arab-Israeli Conflict.

5. Supports the efforts being exerted to realize a just and comprehensive peace in the Middle East region based on international legitimacy and calls for the speedy convening of the International Conference on Peace in the Middle East under the auspices of the UN, with the participation of the Permanent Member States of the Security Council as well as all concerned parties including the PLO, on an equal footing with the other parties, in accordance with all relevant UN resolutions including resolutions 242 and 338 of the U.N. Security Council.

6. Demands the immediate and unconditional Israeli withdrawal from all occupied Palestinian territories, the Syrian Golan and other occupied Arab territories and calls upon the U.N. to take all necessary measures to ensure the termination of the Israeli occupation of Palestinian and Arab territories and to provide protection for the Palestinian people by placing the occupied Palestinian territories under interim international supervision in preparation for the realization of a just and comprehensive peace in the region.

7. Strongly condemns the continuing Zionist barbaric and racist practices against the citizens of the occupied Palestinian territories and Syrian Golan and other occupied Arab territories, and appeals to international organizations to intervene in order to stop such inhuman practices which constitute a flagrant violation of human rights.

8. Strongly condemns the Israeli Zionist enemy's policy of establishing settlements and settling of Soviet and other Jewish immigrants in the occupied Palestinian and Arab territories, including the city of Al-Quds Al-Sharif as this policy constitutes a flagrant violation of the principles of human rights and the Fourth Geneva Convention of 1949.

9. Condemns the transfer of the Soviet, Falasha and other Jews to the occupied Palestinian and Arab territories including Al-Quds Al-Sharif and the Syrian Golan, and emphasizes that this scheme leads to the coercive emigration of the Palestinian people from their land and to a similar emigration of the other Arab citizens with a view to executing the Zionist design of establishing "Greater Israel" which poses a serious threat to the safety and security of the Palestinian people, Arab and other Islamic States.

10. Appeals anew to the Government of the Soviet Union to reconsider the transfer of the Soviet Jews to Israel in view of Israel's non-compliance with the resolutions banning Israel from settling them in the occupied Palestinian and Arab territories including Al Quds Al Sharif.

11. Appeals to the Government of the United States of America and the European Community States in conformity with their declared stands, to stop their financial assistance to Israel in order to compel it to stop settlement operations in the occupied Palestinian and Arab territories, and to implement all resolutions of international legitimacy on the Palestinian question and the Arab-Israeli Conflict.

12. Invites the Member States to continue approaching influential world powers to point out to them the serious negative effects of the transfer of Soviet and other Jews to occupied Palestine and other Occupied Arab Territories, and to urge them to oppose such transfer with all possible means as well as Invites Member States to encourage the return of Jews from the occupied Arab territories to their countries of origin.

14. Reaffirms the right of the Palestinian people to return to their occupied territories, which was recognized by the U.N. General Assembly in its Resolution 194.

15. Expresses its deep concern over the situation in the Palestinian refugee camps in Lebanon resulting from the continued Israeli aggressions and calls for sustained action to give the necessary support for their reconstruction under the supervision of the Lebanese government, the holder of legitimate sovereignty over all its territory, in accordance with its regulations, the PLO being informed of the action taken in this respect. and expresses its condemnation of the barbaric raids and the repeated aggressions perpetrated by Israel against these camps.

16. Demands the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of Israeli forces from Southern Lebanon in compliance with U.N. Security Council Resolution 425.

17. Reiterates its condemnation of Israel for its persistent refusal to implement relevant resolutions of the U.N. and the International Atomic Energy Agency (I.A.E.A.) which call for placing all Israeli nuclear installations under the I.A.E.A. System of Safeguards. It calls upon Member States to continue their cooperation within the framework of the U.N. and I.A.E.A. and other relevant international fora in order to ensure Israel's compliance with international resolutions particularly those calling for subjecting its nuclear installations to international inspection and submitting a full statement on its stock of nuclear materials to the Security Council and the International Atomic Energy Agency.

18. Strongly condemns Israel for refusing to conform with Security Council Resolution 497 (1981); for the imposition of its jurisdiction, laws and administration on the occupied Syrian Golan and the annexation policies and practices it pursues there, the establishment of settlements, the confiscation of lands, the diversion of water resources, and the imposition of Israeli citizenship on Syrian citizens; and considers all these measures as null and void, and as a violation of the rules and principles of international law, pertaining to occupation and war, in particular the 4th Geneva Convention of 1949.

19. Considers the agreements concluded between the USA and Israel on strategic cooperation and the signing of the Memorandum of Understanding on Joint Action for the Establishment of Israeli Defence System against Ballistic Tactical Missiles, the continuing US supplies of weapons and modern equipment to Israel, the US practice of storing weapons in Israel, as well as its Israel which would enable and encourages it to persist in its aggressive and expansionist policies and practices in the occupied Palestinian and other Arab territories including Al-Quds Al-Sharif, and would pose a threat to the peace and security of the region and the world.

RECALLING the efforts of the Higher Arab Tripartite Committee stemming from the Arab Summit in Casablanca which were designed to settle the Lebanese situation;

1. STRONGLY CONDEMNS Israel's continuing occupation of Lebanese territory, and its kidnapping and deportation of a number of Lebanese citizens from their villages and land in the occupied part of Lebanon. It strongly condemns the Israeli enemy's inhuman practices in these regions, and its resort to coercion, terrorism, repression, collective punishment and shelling against the civilian population in a bid to morsel out and annex further territories. It calls on the UN Security Council and U. N. Secretary General to step up their efforts to prevent Israel from pursuing its practices and acts of aggression and obtain the release of hundreds of Lebanese citizens detained in Israeli prisons and in those of its puppet forces in Southern Lebanon.

2. STRONGLY CONDEMNS Israel for deporting Palestinian citizens from the occupied Palestinian territories into Lebanon, such arbitrary and inhuman acts constitute a violation of Lebanon's sovereignty as well as a persistent aggression against its territorial integrity, in addition to being a flagrant violation of the Fourth

Geneva Convention of 1949. It also calls upon the United Nations General Assembly and the UN Security Council to bring pressure to bear on Israel to induce it to conform to the relevant Security Council resolution on that matter and to refrain from deporting the Palestinians from their land and houses to Lebanon or to any other country.

3. REQUESTS the United Nations and its various institutions to force Israel to implement the U.N. Security Council resolutions, in particular Resolution 425 (1978), concerning the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of Israeli forces from the Lebanese territory beyond the internationally recognized Lebanese borders, while respecting Lebanese independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity, and assisting the legitimate Lebanese authorities in their bid to control the entire Lebanese territory and all aspects of national activity; and furthermore pays tribute to the Lebanese people for their heroism and steadfastness against Israeli occupation.

ISRAELI NUCLEAR ARMAMENT

The Twentieth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers (Session of Just and Durable Peace Through Dialogue and Cooperation Among Member States and Respect for International Legitimacy), held in Istanbul, Republic of Turkey from 24 to 28 Muharram 1412H (4 - 8 August 1991),

Recalling the resolutions of Islamic Conferences, the latest being Resolution 17/5-P(I.S) of the Fifth Islamic Summit, and Resolution 8/19-P of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers;

Referring to Resolution 487 (1981) adopted unanimously by the Security Council, which calls upon Israel to place as early as possible all its nuclear facilities, under International Atomic Energy Agency safeguards;

Referring to the U.N. General Assembly resolutions on the Israeli nuclear weapons, the latest being Resolution 45/63 of 4 December, 1990;

Referring to the U.N. General Assembly Resolutions on the establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East, the latest being Resolution 45/52 of 4 December, 1990, which urged the countries of the Middle East region, inter-alia, to adhere to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, agree to place all their nuclear activities under International Atomic Energy Agency safeguards, declare their support for establishing such a Zone and deposit these declarations with the Security Council;

Referring to the Resolutions of the General Conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency, the latest being Resolution 518 of 16 September, 1990 which deplored Israel's refusal to place all its facilities under International Atomic Energy Agency safeguards and called upon it to comply with Security Council Resolution 487 (1981);

Referring to the Report No.45/435 of the Secretary General submitted to the General Assembly on 10 October, 1990 on effective ways to facilitate the establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East, and to the contents of this report which namely confirmed Israel's possession of nuclear weapons and clearly urged it to adhere to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and permit IAEA access to Israeli nuclear facilities particularly in Dimona;

Referring to the Report No.45/571 of the Secretary General submitted to the General Assembly on 11 October, 1990 regarding the nuclear capability of South Africa, and confirming the continued cooperative relations between Israel and South Africa in all fields particularly their cooperation in the development of nuclear weapons, the transfer of military technology, and the performance of joint tests in the field of long-range missiles and propulsion rockets capable of carrying nuclear warheads, which leads to an escalation of tension in the regions of the Middle East and Southern Africa;

Deeply concerned at the fact that Israel is the sole party in the region of the Middle East that possesses nuclear installations, has as yet not adhered to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, and refuses to subject its nuclear facilities to International Atomic Energy Agency safeguards although it was urged to do so by the Security Council, the U. N. General Assembly and the International Atomic Energy Agency.

Realizing that Israel's refusal to subject its nuclear installations to effective monitoring by the International Atomic Energy Agency and its continued stock-piling and development of all types of weapons of mass destruction (nuclear-chemical-biological) and related carrier rockets make it incumbent upon the States of the region to take, in turn, all the measures they deem necessary for strengthening their defence potentials to counter the increasing Israeli threat to their security thereby exercising their legitimate right of self-defence.

Gravely alarmed at the reports on Israel's continued production, development and possession of nuclear weapons and its performance of tests in the Mediterranean Sea on related guiding systems, which threaten peace and security in the region as well as international peace and security.

1. Strongly condemns Israel for refusing to adhere to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and for its continued possession of nuclear and other weapons of mass destruction as well as their carrier devices.

2. Reiterates its condemnation of Israel for refusing to implement Security Council resolution 487 (1981) and the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly and the International Atomic Energy Agency urging it to submit all its nuclear installations to the safeguard system.

3. Reaffirms the determination of Member States to pursue their cooperation at the United Nations, the International Atomic Energy Agency and other relevant international fora to compel Israel to abide by the international resolutions, particularly to subject its nuclear installations to international inspection and monitoring.

4. Urges the International Atomic Energy Agency to prevent any scientific cooperation with Israel that may enhance its nuclear potential, and calls on all States and organizations to apply the same criteria and to stop all forms of cooperation with Israel that may develop and strengthen its nuclear potential and weapons, and to issue official declarations in accordance with their obligations under international conventions on the volume and types of assistance provided and safeguard measures taken.

5. Requests the Secretary General to closely monitor Israel's nuclear activities, update the study on Israeli Nuclear Armament and include therein a list of the States that cooperate with Israel in developing and improving its nuclear armament potential in contravention of this and other relevant international resolutions.

6. Requests the Secretary General to closely follow up the implementation of this resolution and report thereon to the next Conference.

HELD AT ISTANBUL, TURKEY, FROM 4 TO 8 AUGUST 1991 (24-28 MUHARRAM, 1412 H)

RESOLUTION NO. 1/20-E
ON ECONOMIC PROBLEMS OF THE ISLAMIC WORLD

The Twentieth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers (Session of Just and Durable Peace Through Dialogue and Cooperation among Member States and Respect for International Legitimacy), held in Istanbul, Republic of Turkey, from 24-28 Muharram 1412H (4-8 August 1991),

Recalling Resolution No.1/19-E of the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers which expressed deep concern at the continued and escalating International economic crisis in recent years which has adversely affected the developing countries in general, and the least developed countries, in particular, causing disequilibrium and imbalance in the structure of the world economy;

Having considered the Report of the Secretary General and the studies prepared by the Ankara and Casablanca Centers on this subject;

Recalling UN General Assembly Resolution No.43/182 and 44/169 on the International Development Strategy for the Fourth United Nations Development Decade;

Taking Cognizance of the new economic configurations emerging at the global level particularly from the creation of a single European Market in 1992 as well as developments in Eastern Europe and the implications of these developments for the Islamic States;

Expressing deep concern at the lack of progress towards redressing the imbalances in the present international economic relations and the establishment of the New International Economic Order (NIEO), due to the reluctance of developed countries;

Noting with concern the adverse effect of these policies on the growth rates of the developing countries which remain not only significantly below the minimum necessary for their development, but have also reduced their per capita income;

Noting with profound concern the unsatisfactory progress towards the implementation of the New Programme of Action (NPA) for the least developed countries;

Taking note of the satisfactory outcome of the Second U.N. Conference of the Least Developed Countries held in Paris in September 1990 and the New Programme of Action (NPA) adopted for the Least Developed Countries;

Noting with profound concern that some developed countries have pursued policies which, negatively affect the international economic environment, triggering a downward pressure on the demand for and price of developing countries' products and aggravating the latter's problems, have impaired the growth process in the world economy in general and in the economies of the OIC Member States in particular;

Taking note of the recommendations of the 16th Session of the Islamic Commission for Economic, Cultural and Social Affairs and particularly those relating to Resolution No.11/19-E adopted by the Nineteenth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers on study on the possibility to set up an Islamic Common Market or any other appropriate form of economic integration among the Member Countries, with a view to achieving economic and commercial integration among OIC Member States;

2- Expresses deep concern at the decline in external-financial resources available to developing countries for development and the reverse transfer of resources from developing to the developed countries and the risk of deviation of assistance.

3. Expresses the hope that the recent strengthening of economic relations between the European Community and Central and Eastern European countries would not adversely affect the trade exchanges between the Member countries and the European Community.

4- Calls upon the developed countries and International Financial Institutions to take urgent and effective steps to alleviate the crushing burden of external debt of Islamic States.

5- Calls on Member States to participate actively in the implementation of the International Development Strategy for the Fourth U.N. Development Decade.

7- Stresses the importance of increasing the Official Development Assistance (ODA) granted by the developed countries in favour of developing countries in general, and the least developed countries in particular.

8- Notes with satisfaction that, despite the sharp drop in oil revenues in recent years, the Islamic donor countries still provide significant external aid and that the amount of aid distributed to the least developed countries exceed SNPA recommendations of 0.15 per cent.

3. In order to facilitate the deliberations of the Committee, the Chairman submitted to the Committee a programme of work which was unanimously approved. Such a programme, the Chairman indicated, would help the Committee successfully complete within the prescribed time the tasks entrusted to it by Their Excellencies the Foreign Ministers.
