75. Letter dated 27 May 1967 from the Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom addressed to the President of the Security Council

In a letter dated 27 May 1967 (S/7907) the representative of the United Arab Republic requested the inclusion in the current agenda of the Security Council of an item entitled "Israeli aggressive policy, its repeated aggression threatening peace and security in the Middle East and endangering international peace and security". He requested the President to have the above item considered urgently.

In a letter dated 29 May 1967 (S/7910), the representative of the United Kingdom requested that the Report by the Secretary-General (S/7906) of 26 May be included in the provisional agenda of the Council's meeting scheduled to take place that afternoon.

At its 1343rd meeting, held on 29 May 1967, the Security Council adopted its agenda, which included the three items set out above (items 73, 74 and 75), and agreed to consider them together. Discussion of the items continued at the 1344th, 1345th and 1346th meetings, held on 30 and 31 May and 3 June 1967. In the course of those meetings, the representatives of Israel, the United Arab Republic, Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, Iraq, Morocco, Saudi Arabia and Kuwait were invited, pursuant to their requests, to participate without vote on the discussion.

On 30 May the United States submitted a draft resolution (S/7916 (Rev.1 in English only)) under the terms of which the Security Council, inter alia noting that the Secretary-General in his report expressed the view that "a peaceful outcome to the present crisis will depend upon a breathing spell which will allow tension to subside from its present explosive level", and that he therefore urged "all the parties concerned to exercise special restraint, to forego belligerence and to avoid all other actions which could increase tension, to allow the Council to deal with the underlying causes of the present crisis and to seek solutions", would (1) call on all the parties concerned as a first step to comply with the Secretary-General's appeal; (2) encourage the immediate pursuit of international diplomacy in the interests of pacifying the situation and seeking reasonable, peaceful and just solutions; and (3) decide to keep the issue under urgent and continuous review so that the Council might determine what further steps it might take in the exercise of its responsibilities for the maintenance of international peace and security.

At the 1345th meeting on 31 May, the representative of the United Arab Republic introduced a draft resolution (S/7919), which the representative of India indicated he would request be put to the vote in accordance with rule 38 of the provisional rules of procedure. Under the provisions of the United Arab Republic draft resolution, the Security Council, inter alia conscious of the grave situation prevailing in the Middle East resulting from the inability of the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization to function in accordance with the resolutions of the Council and in conformity with the obligations of the parties to the Egyptian-Israel General Armistice Agreement, would (1) decide that the General Armistice Agreement was still valid and reiterate that the United Nations machinery emanating therefrom should be fully operative; (2) call upon the Israel Government to respect and abide by its obligations and responsibilities as stipulated in the Egyptian-Israel General Armistice Agreement and to act accordingly; (3) instruct the Chief of Staff of UNTSO to proceed promptly and reinstitute within two weeks the headquarters of the Egyptian-Israel Mixed Armistice Commission in El-Auja from where it discharged its duties prior to the Israel unilateral action forcing its expulsion from that zone; (4) decide to bolster additional measures necessary for the full implementation of the resolution in case of the non-compliance by the Israel Government with its terms; (5) request the Secretary-General to contact the parties to the Egyptian-Israel General Armistice Agreement for the immediate implementation of the decision and to report to the Security Council within fifteen days for its approval with regard to additional measures; and (6) decide to reconvene to discuss the report of the Secretary-General immediately upon its submission.

At the close of the 1346th meeting, the Council agreed to continue its discussion on 5 June on the understanding that members should hold themselves available for consultations and for an urgent meeting in case of new developments requiring a meeting prior to the time scheduled.
